

1,000 School Children to Parade Memorial Day

All Schools Unite In Patriotic Observance And Memorial Service

Memorial Day exercises in Arlington Heights will bring together one of the largest groups that ever participated in a Memorial program. Thursday morning at nine o'clock, over a thousand school children will assemble with representatives from most of the organizations in the community at Recreation Park where the parade will embark at 9:30. The American Legion, Merle Guild post, and the Veterans of Foreign Wars are directing the parade and services.

Ceremonies will be held at Memorial Park on Fremont st. G. Rex Volz will deliver the Memorial day address. Rudolph J. Rizzi, Commander, Arlington Heights Post No. 981 will read General Order No. 11 for the day, and Elmer W. Crane, Commander, Merle Guild Post No. 208, will present the Roll Call. The school children, accompanied by the high school band will also give two selections, "America" and "God Bless America" at Memorial Park.

Park Dist. Tax Dollar Covers A Lot of Ground

Arlington Heights park district has to stretch the tax dollar further than probably any other taxing body in the community. There is less than $3,500 of tax money to pay for the maintenance of all the parks within the village—and there are ten of them. It takes some close figuring and pencil sharpening to keep the expenditures within the budget.

Members of the park board find a difficult problem before them when they consider financial matters. As an aid to keeping expenditures within the budget, the park board recently made a drastic cut in the maintenance cost. Practically the entire maintenance of twelve acres of grass plots falls upon one person. A glance at the condition of the park areas of Arlington Heights shows the efficient supervision that is being given to this work.

The voters of Arlington Heights in repeated elections directed the purchase of land and installation of improvements, which orders the park board obeyed. Today nearly two thirds of all the tax money that is collected is needed to pay for the bonds and interest that made possible those improvements.

The tax rate for 1939, now under collection, is only 43 cents—the smallest tax of any public body in Arlington Heights. The greater share of that tax rate will go for payment of bonds; the remaining one third, or about 12½ cents is all that remains for park upkeep and expenses.

The annual report of the district published this week tells its own story.

It is important that our park district utilize every possible earning power of the park facilities. The report of the treasurer shows concession receipts of the past year at about $700, but the supplies for those concessions totaled nearly $600.

The swimming pool operation can easily wreck the financial structure of the park district because the park district has no financial cushion to fall back upon. The swimming pool must either pay its own way, or the public will have to make up the deficit by taxes.

The park board feels that the pool should be self sustaining. If the receipts do not meet the expenses, operation of the pool must be curtailed or the parks, the beauty spots of Arlington Heights, will have to be neglected.

There was a $1,000 loss last year. The park board is not going to allow it to happen a second time. Cuts in hours and number of pool employees is the first economy step taken. The second is the sale of one class of swim tickets for everybody. These tickets cost $3.00 and the purchaser or his family make a saving of fifty cents by the use of the ticket.

A plan for 1940 season call for further economies and if the general public gives the pool half a break, there will be no deficit the coming summer and the greatest amount of good will result.

A perusal of the annual report reveals the rather startling fact that nearly 75% of tax money collected is being used to pay bonds. In other words, the greater share of the tax payers dollar is used each year to pay for the "ground work" of Arlington's park system.

The job of a park commissioner is a thankless one—a lot of grief and the only pay in sight is the satisfaction of knowing that he has done his bit in providing recreational facilities for the people of his home town.

Patrol Boys Picked To Spend A Week At Camp of Motor Club

Members of the school safety patrol in Northwest suburbs chosen by a committee of civic leaders to attend summer camp as guests of the Chicago Motor club were announced this week by President Charles M. Hayes. Each boy was first selected by his school as outstanding in patrol work, then appointed by the committee for the camp trip.

Arlington Heights boys that have been honored and were invited to attend camp are William Griffith, north school; James Barrett, south school; and Francis Lieberger, St. James school.

'Boys From Neighboring Towns'

Barrington: Harold Jeppson. Bartlett: Ralph Andreasen. Des Plaines: Bob Siegler. Niles: Robert Kreger.

Northbrook: Leonard Swensen. Palatine: Melvin Vogt.

"Each of these boys will spend a week in camp in June," Mr. Hayes said. "They will be picked up by a chartered bus and taken to the camp site in the northern part of the state."

"Under the leadership of counselors trained to supervise boys' sports, the youngsters will swim, hike, play outdoor games and enjoy themselves generally as a reward for their life-saving service to their schoolmates and the motoring public throughout the year. They will also attend safety classes under the direction of educators and safety experts each day in order that those who serve again on the patrol may become even more proficient and that those who enter high schools will become leaders in safety and safe drivers of the future."

Mr. Hayes said that expert care will be taken of the boys. Dieticians will supervise preparation of their meals and counselors will establish camp routine which will insure healthful activity for the boys. All expenses will be taken care of by the motor club.

Grade Schools Have Vacation Friday

The grade school pupils will have a double holiday this week, with Friday off following Decoration day. The teachers will be on duty, however, and will spend the day in completing records and reports for the year. The high school will have school classes on Friday as usual.

Red Wings To Play Chicago Team Thursday Memorial Day

The Arlington Red Wings will meet a Chicago team on Memorial day at Recreation Park, and will play the Greenview A. C.'s next Sunday.

The local team has been out of action the past two Sundays due to wet grounds. All Arlington Heights games are called at 3 o'clock at Recreation Park. For an afternoon of enjoyment watch the Red Wings play ball.

Hold Picnics In Spite Of Weather Man

The weather man has conspired against the usual "close of school" picnics, but it takes more than damp weather to dampen the ardor for picnics among the school children. Last week, saw the children of several grades celebrating the closing of the school year with their annual picnics, when groups gathered in Elk Grove, Deer Grove and on farms.

YOUNG AMERICA ON THE MARCH

In recent issues of Paddock Publications we have published small items regarding the Youth Convention and Parade to be held under the auspices of the Ninth District, of The American Legion, at Arlington Heights, Illinois, on the afternoon of June 9th, 1940. Some 75 youth organizations in which the American Legion and the American Legion Woman's Auxiliary have been interested for the past 20 years. Individual members of the Posts and Auxiliary Units comprising the 9th District have given both time and pecuniary support to these organizations through the years because they believed that the preservation of a loyal and prosperous America depended upon the Youth of the Nation.

Five years ago it was decided that publicity should be given to this work among the youth organizations and to the boys and girls belonging to the different groups. Thus the idea of the Youth Convention and Parade was born. The years have proven the wisdom of the plan. Each year the parade has grown. This year it is expected there will be between 3500 and 4000 youngsters in the parade — young Americans all.

At this time, when the public generally is concerned with National Defense; with a world literally gone mad under the malignant influence of the "Gods of War," the Editor of this Newspaper believes that it is of prime importance for the public to be informed of the splendid job accomplished by the American Legion in their constant effort to instill in the heart and mind of the youth of our Country a faith in the American Ideal that shall hold them steadfast when they reach the age of Citizenship. There is no greater safeguard to the things we hold dear, than a loyal, healthy boy or girl.

The men of the Legion have earned their citizenship the hard way. The way of War with all its horrible cost of human suffering. They are devoting their lives to the cause of America. A strong America. Strong in the Faith of our institutions and strong enough in our National Defense to insure forever a peaceful and prosperous life.

So, we urge the public to come to Arlington Heights June 9th, 1940, and witness this parade. You will see Young America on the March — On The March Toward Peace.

Next week's issue of this newspaper will carry a complete program of the afternoon's activities.

Fire First Gun For Arlington's Fourth Tuesday Night

Chairman C. M. Behrens and his generals, chairmen of the Fourth of July committees are meeting this Tuesday evening, to make plans for Arlington Heights' 1940 Fourth of July celebration. C. M. Behrens was drafted to the general chairmanship but he has not had to do any drafting to complete his executive committee. He has secured the consent of his committeemen, each of whom will head a part of the celebration. These men in turn, will secure volunteer workers.

The executive committee at its meeting Tuesday will determine all policies and make appropriations for the coming event. The members of the executive committee are:

C. L. Griffith, parade.
J. D. Flentje, fire works.
R. Wilke, concessions.
Wilbert Hartmann, dance.
Albert Goedke, refreshment.
Geo. Schneberger, sports.
S. R. Paddock, publicity.
Wm. Gronert, finance.
M. R. Warson, grounds.

Double Phone Service To Herald Office

The "busy" signal will not be as frequent as formerly when telephone subscribers call the Herald office. An additional phone line was installed this week, which means three trunk lines connecting this newspaper with the outside.

Two figures have been added to the former phone number. In calling the publication office ask for 1520.

One of the trunk lines has direct connection with Palatine telephone exchange, which number is Palatine 10.

Additional phones for the handling of the Paddock Publications in communities in the northern part of Du Page County are Bensenville 266 and Roselle 4251 besides the home phones of our local correspondents.

Board Passes Anti-Trailer Ordinance

Arlington Heights village board passed an ordinance Monday evening governing the operation of a trailer camp within the village. Not only is the camp barred but individual trailers are not permitted to be parked on property within the village unless such trailer has direct connection with the sewer and a water supply. The ordinance appears in this issue.

Following the usual custom, speakers selected by the members of the class will give short talks. They are Edward Bublitz, Barbara McWharther, Robert Jensen, Edith Croft, Jack Gehringer, Ruth Schwolow, Robert Haake and Harriette Willson. The girls ensemble and boys chorus will sing.

The Rev. John B. Hubbard will deliver the commencement address Wednesday evening, June 5, to 56 graduates of Arlington Heights elementary school to be held in the high school gymnasium. Musical numbers will be by the school orchestra, eighth grade chorus and girls octette.

N. A. Carlson, president of the board of education will present the diplomas.

Bensenville Pair Forge 18 Checks

One of the boldest rackets attempted under the Old Age Assistance set-up was uncovered last Friday, when Arthur Parks of Bensenville and his wife, Dorothy, were arrested on charges of forging 18 old age pension checks and are now in the county jail at Wheaton under $5,000 bonds.

Mrs. Parks was arrested in her home by deputy sheriffs and taken to Wheaton and her husband was nabbed when he came to visit her. Forgery warrants were sworn out by State's Attorney Investigator Allan A. Meyers.

Mrs. Alva E. Parks, mother of the arrested man, made application for old age assistance in 1937 and later removed to Michigan. The checks, it is said, came to the home of her son in Bensenville who is accused of having accepted and cashed them after forging the signature of his mother. The mother has denied having received any checks after her application was granted, it is stated.

Surprise Awaits Many Tax Payers Who File Income Reports

If you are one of the lucky persons who received interest from bonds, stocks or mortgages and entered the amount so received on your income tax report to Uncle Sam, do not be surprised if you receive a special letter from the county assessor asking if you have forgotten to include in your personal property schedule an amount equaling ten per cent of the interest bearing securities that you own.

All local assessors have received orders from Chicago to insert on personal property schedules, ten per cent of the amount of securities or stock on which the tax payer collected interest during 1939. The amount of interest received by the individual tax payer has been taken from the income tax return filed with the government for 1939. Four per cent is taken as the basis in determining the amount of such securities owned by the tax payer.

The tax payer who desires to dispute the assessment has the opportunity of filing a sworn statement, which can be filed with the board of appeals. Stocks of Illinois corporations are exempted as such tax is collected at its source.

Local assessors have no choice in the matter and are in a position where they must obey the order.

Mr. Meyer, Wheeling assessor is holding office hours at the office of Flentje & Behrens for two weeks. Mr. Deverman of Palatine is holding hours every evening at his residence. Otto Busse, Elk Grove assessor is at the Mt. Prospect municipal building or at his home on Busse road.

Local Fire Dept. Veteran To Give Weekly Talks On Fire Protection

Alex Lips, who is the oldest member of the Arlington Heights fire department, has turned author. It is a job that has been wished onto him by Chief Jahn and the boys of the department. He will endeavor to make Arlington Heights people fire protection conscious.

In a series of articles to appear each week in the Herald until October 1, Mr. Lips will give fireside chats on ways and means to protect property and lives from fire. The first chat appears next week.

America Not Secure from Invasion

The Atlantic and Pacific Oceans are no longer wide enough to guarantee America's security. It is not only possible but extremely probable that a hostile landing party— in some future "undeclared war"— can make a lodgement within easy striking distance of America's larger seaboard cities "and we have nothing to prevent such an intrusion."

Such is the warning issued by William H. Garrigus, author of "How Safe Is America?" in the current (May) issue of Foreign Service, official monthly magazine of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States.

Garrigus, a member of the V. F. W. National Defense Committee, declares that "halfway measures of preparedness" are inadequate and reminds the people of the United States that ours is the "richest nation on earth, and the rest of the world knows it."

"Our Security is a Myth," Garrigus states. "The twin oceans that separate us from the war torn countries of Europe and the Orient are all too narrow to permit of further delay in building up our navy and our army. We must insist, now, that our machinery for defense be renovated and modernized. Tomorrow may be too late. We are living in an age when it is fashionable to fight undeclared wars and the enemy of the future may not send advance notice of his plans."

Not only national security but economy demands peace-time preparation against war, the writer declares. He points to the fact that 21,000 millionaires were created in America "during the hectic days of the first World War."

"Some of these men won their fortunes trading with our Allies, but many more piled up their gains producing war material for the United States government on a cost-plus basis," he writes. "Hasn't America learned? Doesn't the man in the street realize that goods produced in the rush of wartime production are more expensive and of poorer quality than goods manufactured for the armed service during an era of peace?"

Views on Preparedness

On Sunday evening, May 19, 1940, Col. Charles A. Lindbergh spoke to the American people. It was the voice of sober thinking which instilled confidence, self-reliance, and security in the hearts of millions of Americans.

On Wednesday evening, May 22, 1940, Senator Byrnes spoke to the American people and unleashed a scalding and bitter attack on the personage and integrity of one who has, and deserves, the confidence of millions of Americans, namely, Col. Charles A. Lindbergh. It was a voice of bitterness, hatred, and insincerity. This is no time for personal attack. We are approaching the hour of decision and we need the help and intelligence of every true American. The radio and press become a curse when they allow personal quarrels to be thrust upon the people.

We need an internal house-cleaning. We need a leadership that can build true devotion to a sacred cause into the hearts of men. With this spirit we are invincible — without it we cannot endure.

It would be well for every true American, before making any public utterances, to heed the words of one of our Greatest Americans, when he said — "I have said nothing but what I am willing to live by, and if it be the pleasure of Almighty God — to die by."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES
"Soul and Body" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 23.
The Golden Text was, "My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of the Lord: my heart and my flesh crieth out for the living God" (Psalm 84:2).
Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "O bless our God, ye people, and make the voice of his praise to be heard: Which holdeth our soul in life, and suffereth not our feet to be moved" (Psalm 66:8, 9).
The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "As astronomy reverses the human perception of the movement of the solar system, so Christian Science reverses the seeming relation of Soul and body and makes body tributary to Mind. Thus it is with man, who is but the humble servant of the restful Mind, though it seems otherwise to finite sense. But we shall never understand this while we admit that soul is in body or mind in matter, and that man is included in non-changeable, Soul, or Spirit, is God, unchangeable and eternal; and man coexists with and reflects Soul, God, for man is God's image" (p. 119).

Has Hay Fever
A Date With You?
By C. W. Lussman
Of Sieburg Pharmacy

The return of summer need not be a season of dread in spite of the fact that you have a date with Hay Fever. Break the date. You cannot do this if you wait until your enemy arrives. It is hard to throw him out then. Begin now. See your doctor for a complete physical check-up. Find out why you are allergic and to what, put in the next few weeks, preventing the appearance of one of the most distressing maladies. Preventive medicine is easier, cheaper, more effective than curative remedies. Refer the doctor's prescription to a good druggist.

Cowbird's Domestic Character
The marital and domestic character of the cowbird is thoroughly bad, it being polygamous and entirely irresponsible for its offspring. The mother skulks about the trees and bushes seeking the nests of smaller birds in which to place her eggs, leaving to them their hatching and general care. Instances have occurred when the cowbird has even removed the eggs of the owners of other nests before placing its own therein.

The game for Tuesday, in which Heidorn's were to meet the C. Y. O. team, was rained out.

Arlington Cafe beat Wheeling on Thursday, 5-1. Waterstreet twirled a neat three-hit game to give Scottie's Texaco's their first defeat. Calanca held Cafe hitless until the sixth, when three singles and a double brought in three runs. A walk and two hits were the cause of two more tallies in the seventh. Huber's double and McKaig's triple were important factors in the scoring.

In Friday's game at Mt. Prospect, Gaare's Studebakers marked up their second league victory with a 7-0 win over Buffalo Grove. Five runs in the last half of the first inning salted away the game.

Gaare's turned on the power with a double, two triples, and two homers in seven hits. They fielded well, keeping all Buffalo Grove runners from reaching third base. Dick Taege, Irv. Kehe, and Al Pedersen got two hits apiece for Gaare's while Bobby Firnbach led Buffalo Grove with two. Pedersen had a triple and a home run for the best blasting of the game.

Campfire Girls of Arlington, Bensenville, Mt. Prospect Plan Day at Camp Reinberg

"Shutanka" is a word which meant "to meet in council" to the Indians, but to over a hundred Camp Fire Girls from Arlington Heights, Bensenville, Mt. Prospect, and Barrington it means a whole day of fun on Saturday, June 8 at Camp Reinberg. Their guardians of the "We ChiGaSo" association have been planning this "day of camping" ever since one wintry night in March when they sat around a fire blazing on the hearth of the Scout cabin at Barrington, talking over the best way of giving the girls a good time together.

The festivities will begin with a flag raising and morning sing at 10:00 a. m., a bonfire building contest will clear the grounds for the Council fire and then off they go on nature hike and game conducted by Mrs. Rex Volz, Miss Mary Spiroff, Miss Ruth Harbeck, Mrs. William Witte, Miss Ethel Mundt and Mrs. Evelyn Corr. A hot noon dinner cooked over camp fires will be followed by handwork classes. Girls may "tie and dye" handkerchiefs, make plaster plaques, or tea tiles of beads, carve soap or blue print nature specimens, make bead rings or pulled crepe paper napkin rings under experienced instructors. "How many stars do you have on your badge" will be the question of the day when the races and games begin under the direction of Miss Virginia Deering of Mt. Prospect, for each winner will receive a star on her souvenir badge.

By six o'clock parents will be arriving with hamper of picnic food and family parties will gather around the tables for the evening meal and a "community sing" of folk songs. At seven thirty Miss Bertha T. Ehard of Mt. Prospect will conduct a Council Fire where the girls will light the Fires of Work, Health and Love and some will receive ranks and honor beads. Every girl who takes part in uniform will be presented with a leather emblem for her ceremonial gown, designed by Mrs. Evelyn Corr of Barrington, so that she can always recall her first summer Shutanka.

Mothers Club In Closing Meeting

The Mothers club of the Methodist church will meet on June 5 at the home of Mrs. Elliott, at 8 p. m. This will be the closing meeting for the year.

It Happened Here

Peggy is gardening in the rain, setting out the seedlings she bought from the nursery; as usual, she was tempted to invest in more plants than she has room for, but what good is a garden if you can't stretch it a mile and ask the permanents to sit closer and make room for the new comers. Edward is helping to stretch, and to restrain and nip off such spreaders as buttercups and lilies of the valley, but the gardener's instinct is perverse and will not allow any root-thing to be cast away, so all the sports must be reset and room made for the orphans and the underprivileged; stretching, up to a certain point, is salutary but even the knees of the gods rebel at long last. The I. C. conductor said he was put to it to convince the police he had a right to transplant his own tree; even after the uprooted tree was being reset in the new hole, the uncorruptible law stood firm, asserting, "All we know is, one of your neighbors phoned us some one was stealing your tree." Picking lilies of the valley while the cardinals walk companionably near us on the green, leaf patterned lawn or flit into the blossomy apple tree, is an experience both we and the cardinals enjoy to the "s. fragrant moment. A small city lawn that can entertain a pair of cardinals, a rose breasted grosbeak or an oriole, from time to time, has substantially increased in value since its winter assessment. This morning we had a green rain just brushing the trees while a greenish mist walled in the known world, and the pool and the leaves and the walks sent back green reflections; then the very found his violin string and played the right notes their hands full of dandelion gold, glowing at each freshly gathered treasure, were having the adventure of a meadow. "O-O! you mustn't pick that—it's got poison, and you could die of it." "And there's a bumblbee in that one!" An alley meadow with pirate gold and bees and a flick of danger.

Northern Illinois District WALTHER LEAGUE

News items for this department should be mailed not later than Monday to Publicity Chairman, 304 N. Douglas St., Arlington Heights. ARLENE NAGEL, Publicity Chairman

Theodore Meyer Elected President At Spring Rally

I am very sorry that a complete report of the annual spring rally was not given last week as was promised. Several of our Leagues had birthday parties last week so that the party news took up the space. However, here it is:

The afternoon business meeting of the spring rally of the Northwest Suburban Zone which was held at Itasca May 19, was called to order by the president, Mr. Walter Gerth of Bensenville, at 2:00. After the singing of the first hymn Rev. F. Zersen, pastor at the host church, had the Scripture reading and prayer. This was followed by another hymn, which in turn was followed by the Welcome by Fred Martin and the response by President Gerth. Several of the division chairmen were absent, but Mr. Sachtleben of Higgins-Canfield presented the plans for the Choral Union, of which he is director. This group anticipates having a Lutheran outing in June, but you will read more about that in future issues of this paper.

After this report the Nomination committee presented their list of nominees to be elected for the four major offices. Tabulation of the ballots showed: Theodore Meyer of Arlington Heights, president; Walter Fill of Norwood Park, vice president; Ruth Gehrs of Arlington Heights, re-elected secretary-treasurer; and Rev. A. H. Fedder of Des Plaines, spiritual advisor. We are sure that these people will fill their positions faithfully and capably, and we ask God's guidance and blessing for them.

After the singing of the Walther League song and the collection, a topic discussion on the International organization was led by Glenn Bees of Park Ridge, St. Andrews. He and his assistants, Fred Ruthenbeck, Erna Meyer, and Mr. Sachtleben, gave excellent reports and helped to clarify the function of their organization for some of the seniors as well as the freshmen and juniors.

Following the reports on Christian Service by Julia Gelfert of Arlington Heights; Recreation by Pauline Gehrs, of Arlington Heights; Publications by Annette Bicknese of Itasca; and Athletics by Louis Fischer of Des Plaines. Rev. Paul Roeder of Chicago, the Northern Illinois District Representative, addressed the gathering. After the announcements and registration report the meeting was adjourned, the people to come back later for a Vesper service.

Rev. F. L. Gehrs of Elk Grove spoke very effectively on Comradeship and Friendship. The newly elected officers were installed by Rev. Roeder in the impressive installation and Vesper service. A delicious supper was served in the church basement by a group of the Itasca Leaguers under the guidance of Annette Bicknese. After the young people had satisfied their hunger they were free to roam the town until 8 o'clock when the evening entertainment was given at the village hall.

Miss Eleanor Schutz of Park Ridge-Redeemer, Cultural Activities leaders, and her committee had arranged a very interesting display of winners and entrants in the past Talent Quests. The evening entertainment also featured entrants in the Talent Quest to be given at River Forest on June 2. Miss Schaumburg and Mary Ann Eiler, of Arlington Heights each rendered several soprano solos which they expect to sing at the quest. Then Virginia McElhose, Arlington Heights, gave several comical readings which were followed by Walter Fence and his accordion. A unique "chalk-talk" was demonstrated very cleverly by Walter Bloethner of Niles. Then the Arlington Heights German band composed of five Leaguers, entertained the audience by their jokes and music. They were hilarious enough, but when Bill Kroll of the Fox Valley

Zone came up and gave his amusing readings, he practically had the folks rolling in the aisles. This program was interspersed by community singing led by Bud Colaba, and the day's activities closed by the singing of the Walther League Taps. The fall rally will be held in Arlington Heights.

Just a side note on our new president—I tried to inveigle him into giving us a picture for publication, but he persisted in saying he only had baby pictures of himself. We wouldn't doubt your word, Ted, but let me assure you that everyone who reads this knows and likes you anyway, so you can't remain secluded.

I guess that's all for this time. Remember, this column is for you, you, you so it is up to you to send in your little bits of news. If you hear of anyone having a birthday party, a picnic, going on a vacation, or similar activities, be sure to get in contact with your society reporter so she can have her weekly column to me by Monday. Thanks.

400 To Compete In Talent Quest

Four hundred members of the Northern Illinois district of the Walther League are expected to compete in 93 contests at the sixth annual Talent Quest Sunday afternoon, June 2, at Concordia Teachers' College, River Forest, before 1,250 persons.

Competitions will range from writing, drama, and art to handicraft and music, both instrumental and vocal. Winners will be awarded medals, and those in 51 classifications will be eligible to participate in the international contest which will be conducted in connection with the 48th International Walther League convention, July 14 through 18 in Ottawa, Canada.

Registration of contestants and visitors at the district quest will begin at 1 o'clock June 2, and the competitions will take place between 1:45 and 5:15 o'clock. An outdoor band concert is scheduled for 5:15 o'clock, and cafeteria supper, at 5:30 o'clock in the college dining hall. Winners will be presented at the evening entertainment, starting at 7 o'clock.

Elmore Boeger, R. F. D. No. 1, LaGrange, is chairman of the committee in charge of the district quest which has for its purpose the discovery and development of the talents of the members and the stimulation of interest and leadership for greater service in Walther League endeavors.

Other members of the committee are Edna Peterson, 1037 South Scofield ave., Oak Park; Eleanor Kammrath, 3829 South Damen ave.; Margaret Neubacher, 607 North Catharine ave., LaGrange; George Merker, 1300 Schilling ave., Chicago Heights; Hugo F. Malte, 2439 Farwell ave.; Albert H. Miller, 306 North Kensington ave., LaGrange; and Milfred Eggerding, 705 Freeman st., Valparaiso, Ind.

The soprano solo and photography contests are expected to draw the most entries, judging from interest displayed in the past, according to Boeger. The total of competitors in the quest last year was 250, but an increase of 150 is anticipated, he added.

Divided into 13 zones, the Northern Illinois district of the Walther League is comprised of 217 young people's organizations in Lutheran churches of the Missouri synod. William Zeiter, 4121 Henderson st., Chicago, is the district president.

The Northwest Suburban Zone consists of the leagues of the Lutheran churches in Arlington Heights, Barrington, Bensenville, Des Plaines, Elmwood Park, Higgins-Canfield, Itasca, Niles, Norwood ark, Palatine, Park Ridge—St.

Audience Likes Book Review Tea of Friendly Class

Spring flowers made the tables at the Friendly class luncheon which was held on Wednesday of last week, a most attractive sight, when two hundred guests were entertained at their annual spring party.

Following the luncheon the guests gathered in the gymnasium, where Mr. Howard Rentwick Cannon, of Oak Park, speaker for the afternoon, presented many of the current books for the guests enjoyment.

Book reviews teas have never been a more popular form of program in Arlington Heights, but two hundred people in the audience sat in perfect quiet while Mr. Cannon in a most entertaining manner reviewed worth while books of today.

He did not tell them the entire story of the books, but described the style of authors, told the value he found in the books, and read passages from them in such a way that the audience was able to feel the beauty of the work.

The books reviewed by Mr. Cannon were "How Green was My Valley," by Richard Llewellyn "Kings Row" by Henry Bellemann, "First Port of Call" by Elizabeth Jordan and "A Goodly Fellowship" by Mary Ellen Chase and "A Portrait of Jenny" by Nathan.

Arlington P.T.A. Has Best Programs In State

"Arlington Heights Parent Teacher Association has the distinction of having had the best program in the state for this year," said Mrs. Holland Plieger, state program chairman of the Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers. She further stated that it was so judged because of the development of the theme, method of presentation, member participation, demonstration of school work by children, and community service. All in all, it met fully the objectives as outlined by the Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers.

The theme for the year "Promoting Child Welfare Through Better Knowledge of School Education" was selected after careful study, the association feeling that inasmuch as trends and methods in education had changed very much in recent years, it would be well to present an interpretation of the aims and methods of modern education adopted by the schools in order that parents may have a full understanding as to how their children were being taught.

The monthly programs were presented by teachers of the north and south schools without whose cooperation the year's work would not have been possible. Since all subjects could not be presented, those were selected (1) where the method of teaching had changed radically, such as reading in the first grade, which was presented by Miss Doris Clark and Miss Laura Grothe; (2) those subjects showing new trends in education such as the emphasis on effective speech with normal and handicapped children presented by Mrs. Elizabeth Andrews; the use of movies in the classroom, presented by Mr. W. F. Vanderbeek; the new approach to teaching art, presented by Mr. Albert Gibas; and the technique of teaching music, presented by Miss Margaret Thompson and Mr. Melvin Anderson.

One meeting was given over to presenting the work of character and citizenship training organizations within the school and in the community namely, the campfire girls, cub pack, patrol boys, girls' auxiliary and school government council.

One meeting was devoted to the community-wide health protection program for children at which time Dr. Schimmel presented facts on immunization and Mrs. Fino, the community nurse spoke for cooperation of parents in the dental survey.

At another meeting, Mrs. Bernice Van der Vries, member of the Illinois state legislature spoke on school legislation.

The final meeting consisted of a discussion and suggestions made for close cooperation between the home and school in the training and development of the child.

Mr. C. V. Baker served as chairman of the panel discussion and those participating were Mr. Milton Bollman, assistant superintendent of schools in Cook county, Dr. Leo Des Jardins, P.T.A. leisure time chairman, Mrs. John S. Monroe, P.T.A. treasurer, Mr. Stuart R. Paddock, publisher and Mrs. J. M. Sommer, P.T.A. hospitality chairman.

Mrs. N. M. Lattof has served the Parent-Teacher association this year as program chairman.

Last Tuesday night marked the close of the 1939-40 P.T.A. year, and beginning of a new period of

Mrs. Barr Speaks To Homemaking Class On Careers

Food and homemaking classes of Arlington Heights township high school spent a most enjoyable class period Friday, May 17, listening to Mrs. Mary Barr, 132 S. Belmont, relate her experiences as a career woman and homemaker. Mrs. Barr believes every woman should have those two vocations and told how some of the same characteristics are necessary to both.

Meeting a capable person who has succeeded in both these fields and being able to hear rather than read about the qualifications, training necessary, the hours, the rewards, the remuneration, etc., is putting so much life into the subject that education becomes practical and pleasurable.

"A. H. T. H. S. is grateful and proud to have citizens who give time and energy to help prepare future citizens for the community," stated Miss Carey Clark, instructor.

Kate Lohmann

Kate Lohmann was born February 13, 1910 in Leipzig, Germany, the daughter of Paul and Lina Lohmann.

Her childhood was spent in Leipzig, where she also was confirmed in the Lutheran faith. At the tender age of thirteen years, she, with her brother, Kurt, were orphaned by the death of their father, the mother having been taken from the home by death six years before. A year later they were visited by their uncle from America, Mr. Arthur Buettner, who decided to bring the two children to America in May, 1924.

Kate had been a frail child from birth, and their entrance to the U. S. A. was made very trying as the brother and sister were detained at Ellis Island for ten long weeks because of her poor health. Their uncle, Mr. Buettner, left no stone unturned in their behalf and finally succeeded in winning their entrance into the country and to his home in Wheeling. Here her health improved with good care, but she was never to know the usual normal strength of young womanhood. She met her handicap with courage and cheerfulness and as she grew to adulthood, she left Wheeling to find employment on the North Shore.

Last December the family

called her back to Wheeling to assist in caring for her aunt, Mrs. A. Buettner, who passed away in February. Since then she remained in the home to be the housekeeper for her uncles, Mr. Buettner and Mr. J. Schmidt.

A week before her death she suffered a recurrence of the heart ailment and was ordered to bed by her physician. Her condition was not considered immediately serious, and her family was shocked to find that she had slipped away very quietly on Friday morning just before her uncle entered the room, having reached the age of 30 years, 3 months and 10 days.

Funeral services were held from the Oehler chapel at Des Plaines and the St. John's Ev. Lutheran church. Interment was made in Ridgewood cemetery. Chief among those who mourn her early passing are her brother, Kurt Lohmann, her uncles, Mr. A. Buettner and Mr. J. Schmidt and cousins, the H. Schmidt family and many friends.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks for the sympathy extended to us by our neighbors and friends in the sudden passing of our beloved sister and niece, and to the Rev. Mr. Fechner for his words of comfort and Mr. W. Oehler for his courteous service in our hour of need.

Movies Upheld

The acceptance of moving pictures as evidence in a law suit arising out of the Benhart-McGoorty accident suit in Du Page county was upheld, last week when the Second District Appellate court sitting at Ottawa refused to set aside the verdict of the Du Page county circuit judge who ruled in favor of the defendant. This is the first time that moving pictures have been admitted as evidence by an Illinois higher court.

This celebrated case dates back to an accident which occurred at Medinah road and Irving Park boulevard June 25, 1938, involving Harold G. Benhart of Roselle and Peter McGoorty of Chicago, son of the Chicago superior court judge. McGoorty claimed that he suffered serious injuries in the accident for which he blamed Benhart and sued the latter for $50,000 damages.

But at the trial after viewing moving pictures showing McGoorty driving golf balls, rowing a boat and indulging in various other strenuous activities, the jury released Benhart from any financial responsibility. McGoorty had testified that his injuries were such he could not stoop over. A commercial photographer had shadowed McGoorty for several days and filmed his activities.

John S. Woodward of Wheaton and Barnabas Sears of Aurora acted as counsel for Benhart during the legal procedure.

SAVE $500.00 See Our Brick Homes 5 or 6 Rooms Complete F.H.A. TERMS

The three wise men of the east followed their star — So did the wise families who now are the proud owners of modern homes in our complete and improved home community. Only a few short months ago these families thought home ownership was beyond their reach — they realized their ambition — YOU, too can join these happy and WISE home owners. THEY read every word of the following — then they acted!

If you can buy a home for six thousand dollars, you're foolish to pay seven thousand. That's horse sense, isn't it? Read on and see why. You'll pay that extra thousand IF you wait. In a few months if price indications mean anything, building costs ARE going UP. Renting will not SAVE YOU either because rents are going up, too.

America is SHORT of homes. Through the worst of the depression population increased, homes burned, and homes tumbled into decay. That's no news to you — just plain facts.

Even then the experts predicted sharply increased home building in the early forties. THE PORTIES ARE HERE. Building is headed UP. General business is headed up. America is more short of homes than ever.

Since 1795 there never has been less than 16 years nor more than 20 between building booms. History is repeating itself TODAY. Demand for homes, indeed the whole of real estate activity is following the usual cycle.

Let Roy Wenzlick, an expert on building and real estate, president of Real Estate Analysts, Inc., tell you what he thinks. Investment firms all over the country are seeking his counsel. They have many billions in real estate — which indicates that he, as much as any man, knows what he's talking about.

Mr. Wenzlick says: "If you ever expect to build a home, there are many reasons for believing the next six months offer opportunities which won't exist again for many years."

This statement isn't mere off-hand opinion; it's conclusion based on more than 12 years of measuring and analyzing, city by city, the various factors responsible for changes in building costs. This statement could have been made before the war started in Europe. It's doubly true with the war in progress.

NOW — why does the present offer this unusual opportunity? There are many reasons. Materials WILL advance in price. Cost of building labor will increase. Building sites can be secured now at less than in the future. The cost of financing a home and interest rates, after dropping since 1929 will now advance.

Materials cost less now: Lumber, brick and Haydite Blocks, and other building materials cost less today than they did in the twenties and much less than they will in the later forties. Eighty-four cents today will buy as much building material as $1. would have bought in 1926, or $1.40 in 1920. General business has been improving since last summer, and this improvement has again started an upward trend in prices for building materials.

It is hard to say how far the price level may advance, but many of the same elements which caused the rise from 1914 to 1920 are again present, with a few extra added. Financing costs are lower today than ever before. This means more to you than you think. A rise of 1 per cent interest on a $6,000, 20-year building loan will cost you about $748, before you're through. There, Mr. Renter is the analysis of the men who know. Men who spend their lives in covering the housing and building fields — the whole range of real estate activity from the ground up.

It will not cost you anything to get all the facts — it may cost you $1000 if you delay — rental receipts represent not alone loss of money, BUT lack of opportunity and true happiness, which can be gained only through home ownership.

YOUR dream of home ownership can come true — write today for free plans. READ! ACT!

Yours truly,

Charles West

IT happens to the best of us. We all like to step out in something a little finer, a little smarter, a bit more able, than the other fellow has.

Ever see anything slicker than the way its soft, rear coil springs float the body serenely along, even though the wheels be dancing?

You won't find a bigger car anywhere at its price, measured bumper to bumper, nor one with a frame as heavy and stout.

You won't find cooling systems sealed under pressure, Fore-N-Aft Flash-Way Direction Signals with automatic cut-off, nor as many cost-free "extras" included in the price.

In short, here's your one best 1940 yardstick—but that's only half of it.

Here's big value—within your reach! Current prices† begin at $895 ★ for the business coupe, delivered at Flint, Mich.; transportation based on rail rates, state and local taxes (if any), optional equipment and accessories—extra as usual.

Expects Exports To Be Curtailed For Many Years

Growing Surplus Threatens Position Of The Farmer

We are beginning to understand rather clearly that the fortunes of the European war are going to have some effect on the prices that farmers receive is the opinion expressed by Farm Adviser Hughes. Lately we have seen the effects of soaring prices of corn and wheat and then the sudden decline of these commodities as the military situation in Europe changed. Whatever the outcome of the European conflict will be the American farmers, the manufacturers and laborers are going to suffer because our export trade will undoubtedly be considerably curtailed.

For a good many years—up until 1900—Europe has been the safety valve for surplus production in the United States. Starting with 1900 our export trade began to fall off. It was increased somewhat during the World War but soon came down to the level of its former decline shortly after the war. Our surplus export at the present time consists largely of munitions. Obviously this cannot go on so very long.

When peace does come war debts are going to be so staggering there will be nothing with which to buy in the United States. Therefore, it appears that demands for our surpluses will be even less than it has been heretofore. The effects of this will be the appearance of a surplus which more quickly will react unfavorably than it has heretofore.

We may expect an attempt on the part of labor and industry to more effectively regiment to maintain a domestic price level satisfactory to themselves. Farmers are going to be obliged to follow some similar procedure or be smothered in their excess crops produced. How this will be done is a problem. The necessity is plain.

It is possible if we do submit to national regimentation that there will be many unpleasant changes to be made in our ways of living. However, on the other hand if methods of dealing with these problems can be found that can be operated by producers, laborers, and businessmen themselves the impact on our ways of living will not be so severe.

Finding and determining how this is going to be done undoubtedly constitutes national problems in the next two or three years.

Start Horses In Hard Summer Work Very Gradually

Good hot-weather farm work horses are best developed by working them plenty during the cool spring days and by feeding them a good diet, Illinois farmers are advised by J. L. Edmonds, professor of horse husbandry at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture.

Horses should not be allowed to loaf throughout the cool spring work season and then suddenly made to work hard, he warns. Pastured work horses may sweat more than stable-fed horses, but they are more likely to stand the summer heat better. As a whole horses kept on pastures during the work season are healthier, they eat less grain and hay and the total cost of maintaining them is less. During extremely hot weather horses should be watered frequently while at work, and they should have free access to salt in the barn and pasture.

Life Estates, Remainders and Reversions.—Much farm land is held by persons entitled only to a life interest. Technically, such a person is known as a life tenant. Actually, he is not a tenant in the same sense that a farm tenant is, but resembles an owner. During his lifetime he may rent the land to others, farm it himself and take all the income or make nearly any use of it he sees fit. He cannot sell or mortgage the land, however, because he is entitled only to the use of the property and not to the fee or title interest. This interest belongs either to some person who has been designated to take the land at the death of the life tenant or, in case no one has been designated, to the heirs of the one who created the life estate. The former are known as remaindermen, the latter as reversioners.

Life estates may be created by will or deed or may come about by operation of law. The dower interest given by law to a surviving spouse is an example of the latter. Life estates are usually created by persons who want to make sure that some particular individual is given a means of income during life, but who wish also to designate what shall happen to the land at the termination of the life tenancy. For example farm owners frequently deed the farm to their children, reserving a life estate in themselves, or a husband may make a will giving the land to his children, subject to a life estate in his wife.

When life tenants are not related to the remaindermen or reversioners or have no interest in them, they often use the land in such a way that its value to the next taker is seriously impaired. Although life tenants can not willfully destroy buildings, timber or other parts of the real estate, the remainderman can not compel them to use sound farming practices. For this reason many people have criticized this type of ownership.

One who rents a farm from a life tenant must yield possession at the time the life tenant dies, re-

Corn Borer Invades Cook County

Favorable Weather Aids Spread

Last summer state investigators found corn borer for the first time in Cook county. "For the past several years corn borer has been in the eastern states," says Farm Adviser C. A. Hughes. "It was anticipated long ago that the borer would reach Cook county long before this. However, it was found that the very dry weather slowed up the progress of the borer."

"Apparently the borers are laying on the leaves as eggs and when they hatch out they have to crawl down the stalk. During very warm weather with intense sun and dry these borers perish. Late years, however, we have had weather more favorable and the borer has begun to spread again. The state entomologists assure us that it will be four or five years before they will increase enough to do any appreciable damage."

"Corn borer damages corn by boring through and into the stalk. Very often it tunnels through the ears of corn which is going to make it bad for the sweet corn grower. There are possibly two things that can be done to control the borer. The first is to thoroughly cover all the stalks that are plowed under."

"Engineers at the state college have devised shields that will fit on the plow and turn the stalks down very effectively. To do a good job of plowing stalks should not be cut or loosened from the ground and the plowing should be done in the direction in which the shields can be turned out. Apparently they are not being sold by machinery companies but will have to be made up by blacksmiths. "There is nothing that can be done to stop the increase in the borer so about all farmers can do is to keep a watch out for them and begin to learn the type of damage they do. Now is the time to begin to plow under stalks and it would be a good idea that fields should not be allowed to stand in old stalks throughout the summer."

Regardless of the length of time for which he may have rented the farm, if possible, it is a good practice to secure the signatures of the remaindermen when renting farm land from a life tenant. When the death of the life tenant does terminate a farm lease, the farm tenant is entitled to harvest any crops that may be growing. Any rent due is payable to the administrator of the life tenant and the remainderman in proportion to the amount of the lease year which has expired.

Jefferson's Democratic Concepts

Thomas Jefferson, one of America's great Democrats, learned some of his democratic concepts from his father, Peter Jefferson.

Cheetah Is World's Fastest
The fastest four-legged animal is the cheetah or lion-hunting leopard, which is able to run over 70 miles an hour for short distances.

Importance of Toys
Because a child learns more through his play than through any other single activity, toys and play materials are highly important.

Three Muses of Poetry
The three muses of poetry are as follows: Calliope, epic poetry; Erato, erotic poetry; and Euterpe, lyric poetry.

sible sources of infestation. "The other method of control is date of planting. Apparently a slight delay in the planting date, an effective control measure. Fields inspected in Indiana and Ohio where the planting was delayed show far less infestation than early plantings. Unfortunately this is one insect that cannot be largely controlled by growing better crops.

"Most insects do not do a great deal of damage on crops that grow luxuriantly. We do not know just what the sweet corn grower has in store for him because his plantings are usually early and the borer apparently likes to feed on sweet corn. Our experiment stations are working on this problem and it is hoped that some means of getting around this difficulty may be found. Sprays and poisons are too expensive to use.

"Farmers who would be interested in securing these shields for their plows might make it known and we will get specifications for the make and size of plow so these shields can be turned out. Apparently they are not being sold by machinery companies but will have to be made up by blacksmiths. "There is nothing that can be done to stop the increase in the borer so about all farmers can do is to keep a watch out for them and begin to learn the type of damage they do. Now is the time to begin to plow under stalks and it would be a good idea that fields should not be allowed to stand in old stalks throughout the summer."

Mac Says-

by GERALD A. MC ELROY

This is our last attempt of the year but we hope to be back again next fall covering the gridiron news in the two local conferences. It has been a good year in sports, particularly in Crystal Lake, where the teams made a clean sweep of the honors in all the activities in which they engaged. The Lakers copped the football championship, both heavyweight and lightweight basketball titles, and wound up the year with an easy triumph in the Northeast Conference track meet held last Friday at Niles. In addition the Lakers annexed the track and golf titles of McHenry county.

Share Baseball Title

Baseball, the one conference sport in which Crystal Lake did not compete, turned out to be a winning activity for Arlington and Niles who tied for the title. Each shut out the other for the only losses suffered. Arlington had the better all round team but Niles had in Boyk a hurler deluxe who held the Cardinal hitters to a total of two hits in two games. Hayes' Cards won 10 straight before they were beaten by Niles in the season's finale 2-0. A swell record and congratulations are in order.

Five Win Titles

In the Northwest conference five different schools won championships as Palatine took the heavyweight basketball, Barrington the lightweight basketball, Northbrook the football, Bensenville the track, and Grant the baseball championships. Tennis which will not be decided until the conference tournament Saturday, June 1, will likely go to Palatine on the basis of a perfect dual record in matches with other schools.

Our Best Picks of the Year

Our picks in the track meets of the two conferences were the most accurate predictions we have made this season. We said that Bensenville would score 73, Palatine 72, Barrington 28, and Antioch 7 in the Northwest loop. The scores were Bensenville 74, Palatine 71½, Barrington 22, Antioch 10½ and Northbrook 2. In the Northeast we picked Crystal Lake to win easily. They did with 72½ points. The only slip we made in the order of finish of the other teams was that Arlington beat out Lake Forest for second and Niles topped Libertyville for fourth.

If you will glance at the list of individual event winners we predicted a week before the meets you will find that we erred in two out of 15 in the Northwest and three out of 15 in the Northeast.

A Difference of Opinion

The Northeast Conference track committee made a rule this year that seems a little queer to us. They allowed competition in the

Arlington 2nd In Northeast Meet

Crystal Lake Too Hard To Catch

Table Of Points

Crystal Lake	72½
Arlington	44½
Lake Forest	43
Leyden	25½
Libertyville	22½
Woodstock	8
Niles	7½

Last Friday six schools of the Northeast conference spent the entire afternoon chasing the speedsters from Crystal Lake as the Lakers annexed their third straight conference title for the school year, in this the first year of the existence of the Northeast conference. By copping the three major titles in football, basketball and track the only thing they didn't gather in was the baseball title, and it was probably a good thing they didn't compete in that, so far as the other schools are concerned.

During the afternoon Crystal Lake won six firsts in the mile and half mile, high and low hurdles, broad jump and half mile relay. Lake Forest came in next with five in the two sprints, the medley and Frosh-Soph relays, and the high jump. Arlington accounted for two, the shot and discus while Libertyville got a first in the quarter mile and Woodstock the broad jump.

The actual running off of the meet was just about the best in the history of either the Northeast or Northwest conferences. Niles high school is to be congratulated on the fashion in which they handled the events everything going off smoothly and on time.

The Niles track was slow, as was to be expected since it has only been built about a year. A lot of work was done to get it into the condition it is. With a little more ago on the track it will be one of the finest in the suburban area. The layout is ideal with a long two twenty straightaway and this makes it possible to run the quarter with only one turn. The biggest handicap was in the hurdle races, the boys having the middle lanes having a distinct advantage since the two outside lanes were exceedingly slow. In neither race did boys drawing the outside lanes fare very well.

Three boys won two events each. Bacon of Lake Forest outran the Crystal Lake sprinters for firsts in the hundred and two twenty, while son of Crystal Lake won the mile and the half mile handily. Miller won himself at least one medal. Sixteen Bensenville boys mean while won 25 medals and also the championship.

20 Win Letters

Palatine awarded 20 track letters Monday to boys who had either scored 13 points, won a first place, or scored points in a big meet. It was the second year in a row that 20 received letters. Thirteen lettermen including the six highest scorers will be back for 1941 which should be the top track year in the history of the school.

While Bensenville loses Speckman, Baumgartner, Sievers, and Guthrie from this year's squad they will still be a team to be reckoned with in 1941. They will have the winners of five first places in the conference meet returning. Pomplum, double hurdle winner, and Thomas, victor in the pole vault, are juniors while Kiefer, high jumper, and Reitz, discus thrower, are sophomores. It will be Palatine and Bensenville battling it out again in '41 without a doubt.

Stout Second in Pole Vault
We saw the Big 10 track meet Saturday and were pleased to note that Stout of Barrington took second in the pole vault competing as a representative of the University of Illinois. Other former suburban high school athletes who scored in the Big 10 meet were Williams of Oak Park who won the pole vault for Wisconsin, Canham of Oak Park who won the high jump for Michigan, and Paskvan of LaGrange who took thirds in shot and discus for Wisconsin.

Becomes Track Star
Phillips of Warren high of Gurnee, who is at Wisconsin competed in the broad jump and high jump at the Big 10 meet, but did not place though he was a qualifier in the former event. Phillips had no high school track and did not report until mid season at Wisconsin. One day while watching practice Phillips bet one of the boys he could clear the bar in the high jump which happened to be at six feet. He did and Tom Jones, Wisconsin track coach, immediately made him a team member.

21 Win Medals
Twenty-one Palatine boys won a total of 34 medals in the conference meet Friday. In spite of their loss of the championship every Palatine boy entered in the meet gan of Arlington won both the shot and the discus. When he tied for second in the high jump he gathered in 2½ more points to take individual honors for the meet so far as points are concerned.

One of the best contested events of the day was the pole vault. Phalen of Woodstock and Cascarano of Lake Forest pushed Ross of Crystal Lake up to eleven feet before he was able to win out over them. The fans were given an unusual treat as the four places after the winner, Joorfetz of Woodstock were Ross, Doss, Doss, and Ross. This pair of brothers battled it out on almost even terms only bare inches separating them at the finish.

The only two casualties of the day were suffered by the two hurdlers from Arlington. Briggs in the high hurdles and Heinze in the low hurdles were unfortunate enough to draw the slow sixth lane in the final heats of the hurdle races. Briggs piled up over the final barrier while running near the front. The spill put him out of the finishers. A little later Heinze piled up on the same hurdle while running in second place yet got up and finished fourth. Other than these two incidents all the events were run off in good shape.
